Step 1 – Crochet the Round Base

Begin with a magic ring.

Work the first round using single crochet stitches.

Increase evenly in every round to keep the circle perfectly flat.

Continue working in continuous rounds.

Check frequently that the rug lays flat without curling.

Continue increasing until the base reaches approximately 60 cm (23.6 inches).

Fasten off.

Step 2 – Add the Decorative Border

Join blue yarn.

Work one round of single crochet around the edge.

Add a final decorative round using crab stitch, reverse single crochet, or a simple shell border.

Keep the edging even all the way around.

Fasten off and weave in the yarn ends.

Step 3 – Crochet the Head

Using yellow yarn, crochet the head beginning with a magic ring.

Shape it using evenly spaced increases.

Add the white facial section separately.

Crochet the gray beak.

Embroider the eye using black yarn.

Attach all facial pieces securely.

Step 4 – Crochet the Body

Crochet the large teardrop-shaped body using yellow yarn.

Increase gradually through the widest section.

Decrease toward the lower end.

Lightly stuff the body if a raised effect is desired.

Leave a long yarn tail for sewing.

Step 5 – Make the Wing

Using green yarn, crochet an oval wing.

Add blue edging to create layered feathers.

Use front-loop or back-loop stitches to add texture.

Steam lightly before attaching.

Sew the wing onto the body.

Step 6 – Crochet the Tail Feathers

Create long feather strips in:

- Red
- Blue
- Green

Work each feather separately.

Attach the feathers together into one tail section.

Sew securely beneath the body.

Arrange the feathers naturally before fastening.

Step 7 – Crochet the Feet and Branch

Using brown yarn, crochet a narrow branch.

Create two gray feet separately.

Attach the feet onto the branch.

Position the branch beneath the parrot.

Sew securely onto the rug.

Step 8 – Assemble the Parrot

Arrange all pieces before sewing.

Attach:

- Head
- Body
- Wing
- Tail
- Feet
- Branch

Use matching yarn and invisible stitches.

Hide all yarn ends on the back.

Step 9 – Embroider the Details

Outline selected areas with black yarn.

Add feather texture using surface crochet or embroidery.

Embroider nostrils and facial lines.

Check symmetry before finishing.

Step 10 – Final Blocking

Wash lightly if needed.

Pin the rug onto blocking mats.

Shape the circular edge.

Allow it to dry completely.

Your Crochet Parrot Round Rug is now complete.

Helpful Tips

Use cotton yarn for excellent stitch definition.

Keep increases evenly spaced to prevent waviness.

Stuff only the appliqué pieces, not the rug base.

Pin every piece before sewing permanently.

Block the finished rug for a perfectly round shape.

Care Instructions

Hand wash with mild detergent.

Do not bleach.

Lay flat to dry.

Do not wring.

Do not iron directly over textured appliqué pieces.

Store flat when not in use.

Customization Ideas

Make a larger rug by adding more increase rounds.

Create tropical-themed rugs with toucans, flamingos, or macaws.

Use brighter rainbow colors for children's rooms.

Turn the parrot into a wall hanging instead of a rug.

Add embroidered flowers, leaves, or jungle vines around the border.

Create a matching pillow, basket, or table mat using the same parrot motif.
